Synopsis

We cover the appendices of Gideon the Ninth, which includes A Sermon on Cavaliers and Necromancers, Cohort Intelligence Files, and A Little Explanation of Naming Systems. We intended to call this a "mini" episode, but it turned out to be not so mini. Instead, we'll call it a special episode where nothing really major happens, but you still get to listen to us talk at each other about the nine houses.

This is a podcast filled with spoilers both for Gideon the Ninth and Harrow the Ninth. First time readers beware.
