Drake Holland lands a job in the warehouse of an online retailer, and it isn't anything like he expects. Instead of actual work, the boss and an assistant are more interested in bondage and sex games with just the three of them on the night shift in a huge building alone.

Join Drake for a week of extreme restraint, breath control, peril play, and sex. Drake, Roy the boss, and his co-worker Gregory put the packing materials and equipment to kinky use in this collection of five short m/m/m tales.
