Welcome to Christmas Grove, the town full of love, magic, and holiday miracles.

Ilsa McKenzie has only ever loved one man. But 11 months ago, he walked out of her life, leaving her heartbroken and her life changed forever. After leaving the magical town of Christmas Grove to regroup and get her life in order, Ilsa's back, ready to face her past and start her future with or without him. There's only one question. Will Zach want to be a part of her life or will he run again?

Zach Frost doesn't love easily. He's loved and lost before. All he's ever wanted was to run his Christmas tree farm and start a family. And once Ilsa arrives in town, it seems he's on the verge of making his dreams come true. But his past is complicated, and it's about to catch up with him. Can he make peace with his mistakes or will he let history repeat itself and lose his chance with the one woman who can make him feel whole?
