Sammy the Dalmatian is a retired, highly decorated fire dog. Sammy and his two best friends, Jewel the golden retriever and Mason the rottweiler, live close together in Sun City, a retirement community in beautiful Arizona. Every day, like clockwork, the three dogs get together to have some fun and reminisce about the old times.

When Mason fails to show up one day, Sammy and Jewel go on an adventure that will take them on a hunt for two very bad men living near their community. It will take a great deal of courage to bring down these dognappers. But all three dogs, along with their loyal friends and family, are willing to risk everything.
