When the lighting caught him, Prince Taurian of Renjer braced for travel, gripped by the piercing claws of the Demon-like Tryn on his back. When he awoke, his prey was gone - as was his true form. Instead, Taurian stood as a man, weak, naked...and staring down the barrel of a shotgun.

With two exes under her belt, Dena hasn't had the best of luck with men. In fact, most of them just seem like over grown toddlers with a mean, monstrous streak except Dena knows what real monsters are. She knows now that some legends and myths are based in fact - and there is something very odd about the man trespassing on her property.

Two species brought together by chance and time, their meeting seemed fated, yet their truth will rock the universe and challenge everything they think they know.
