Kaitlynn hasn't thought about Ian in years, and now, he's all she seems to think about. Is she making a mistake? More than likely, but like a moth drawn to a flame, she can't help herself. But is Greg truly in her past? And does Ian have some secrets of his own to reveal?

In high school, Kaitlynn Ross seemed to have the perfect life: Captain of the cheerleaders and dating the quarterback - Greg Larson. But underneath the veneer of happiness lies a dark truth. Greg is abusive and manipulative, and piece by piece starts taking Kaitlynn's happiness apart.

After 15 miserable years of marriage, Kaitlynn has finally escaped. But she never expected to run into the one man she hadn't thought about in years. Those eyes. Those damn dark eyes tear through her to the very core of her being. Ian James was Greg Larson's best friend. He was also the man she always secretly loved. She was just too afraid to act on it.
