Blue Ridge library director Amy Webber learns it wasnâ€™t all peace and love among the â€œflower childrenâ€• when a corpse is unearthed on the grounds of a 1960s commune. Taylorsford Public Library director Amy Webberâ€™s friend â€œSunnyâ€• Fields is running for mayor. But nothing puts a damper on a campaign like an actual skeleton in a candidateâ€™s closet. Sunnyâ€™s grandparents ran a commune back in the 1960s on their organic farm. But these former hippies face criminal charges when human remains are found in their fields - and a forensic examination reveals that the death was neither natural nor accidental. With Sunnyâ€™s mayoral hopes fading, Amy sets her wedding plans aside, says â€œnot yetâ€• to the dress, and uses her research skills to clear her best friendâ€™s family. Any of the now-elderly commune members could have been the culprit. As former hippies perish one by one, Amy and her friends Richard, Aunt Lydia, and Hugh Chen pursue every lead. But if Amy canâ€™t find whoever killed these â€œflower childrenâ€•, someone may soon be placing flowers on her grave.
