The moment Madison Anders walks into Jared Gentry's ornate office building, she knows he'll never hire her. The kind of employee who works at a place like this is the skinny, confident model type, which Madison doesn't resemble even slightly. But when Jared takes one look at her, Madison becomes frightened - not of him, but of her sudden longing for him take her right then and there. When he moves to fulfill her need, she cannot help but submit to the pure passion and pleasure of his powerful, dominant lovemaking.

Shocked at her behavior, Madison runs from Jared's office, ignoring his orders to stay put. But before long, Jared shows up at her apartment to explain that he's a werewolf, and that alphas like him have mates who are destined to be theirs. When Jared takes her over his knee and spansks her bare bottom for her earlier disobedience, she tries to protest, but her body betrays her and his practiced touch after her punishment leaves Madison panting and craving more, which he gives her, over and over again.

After Jared introduces Madison to his second, Ethan, and explains that seconds have the same destined mate as their alpha, she quickly discovers that the two handsome, fiercely dominant men will both be ensuring that her needs are met - both in and out of the bedroom. But not all of the wolves in the pack are happy that their leaders have claimed a human as their mate, and soon Madison's life is in grave danger. Can Jared and Ethan save her before it's too late?
