Soothe your soul at bedtime as you listen to some of the world's most beautifully written classic stories, exquisitely read by Alison Larkin and Virginia McKenna. Alison's AudioFile Earphones award-winning reading of Peter Pan is followed by Through the Looking Glass and The Snow Queen. How the Elephant Got Its Trunk is read by Virginia McKenna, OBE, the iconic English actress best known for the films Born Free, A Town Like Alice, and Ring of Bright Water.

AudioFile Magazine raves about both narrators:

"The well-known characters in the much-loved story of Peter Pan are enlivened with humor and excitement in this gem. Narrator Alison Larkin breathes a unique personality and voice into each character."

"Virginia McKenna is wonderfully expressive. Her narration feels like she is reading a book to a group of children - a treat for children and adults alike."

This very special audiobook ends with Audie award-winning narrator Derek Perkins' reading of "Jabberwocky", exclusively for Audible.
