Chelsea thought she was going to spend an entire week banging her lusty pastor. But when she arrived at the so-called religious retreat, he'd already found someone else! Now she's mad as a hornet, horny as hell, and drunk. That's a bad combination unless she can find some well-hung counselors who are in the mood for some sexy fun!

Hey, what about the three cute guys sitting around her campfire? They're all sexy, and it sure looks like they're seriously hung and "up" for an adventure! Can she take all three of them at once? Especially since Pierce is a huge black stud who's built like a stallion!

One thing's for sure...if Chelsea survives, she's going to be walking funny for a week!
