After Caleb discovers he has the rare Affinity for the Dead, he must do whatever it takes to hide it from a super-secret government agency whose goal is exploitation. Caleb seeks refuge in his new girlfriend, Jade, until he realizes that she needs as much protection from her family as he does from the government. Suddenly, Caleb finds that hiding his ability while protecting Jade and his friends is a full-time job; can he escape the government, protect Jade, and lose the bullies who are making him miserable? What happens when teenagers manifest paranormal abilities which make them more powerful than the adults? Can death be used as a weapon? Can humanity transcend death? Death Whispers reveals impossible human potential and the evil which lies therein.
