Jessica and I sat down to talk about several stories from the past week involving religion and politics.

“ The Supreme Court gave COVID-denying churches a gift, saying COVID restrictions in New York didn't apply to them. (1:08)

“ Thousands of Hasidic Jews crammed into one place for a wedding. This is why we can't have nice things. (14:04)

“ A Florida appeals court said bans on gay conversion torture for kids are unconstitutional. (18:27)

“ New York State is suing the Diocese of Buffalo for not protecting kids from abusive priests. (26:50)

“ Tennessee Republicans want to make sure COVID can still spread once we have the vaccine. (30:43)

“ A pastor who oversees an anti-mask daycare sent an insane letter to parents after the state shut the place down. (34:18)

“ A UK Court tossed out a paralyzed man's lawsuit to permit assisted death. (37:45)
