Here is your 'How To' guide for women who want to experience fabulous orgasms from Dr Janet Hall, Clinical Psychologist and Sex Therapist!

It's a great audio for all women to listen to as it reminds them that they deserve good sex, it's OK to receive and enjoy sex and it's wonderful to enjoy orgasms.

A man could benefit from listening to this audio recording for ideas to inspire his woman to enjoy her orgasms or just for his own education.

Dr Jan describes the benefits of orgasms and talks about five kinds of women and their experience of orgasm:

- 1. Those who are consistently orgasmic,
- 2. Those who used to be but have lost the knack,
- 3. Those who have not yet had an orgasm but are motivated to learn,
- 4. Those who don't care to learn, and
- 5. Those who have chosen not to learn.

Dr Jan discusses the common obstacles to women learning how to orgasm and examines that controversial issue: should a woman fake her orgasm?

You'll also find a step-by-step treatment program and hypnotic suggestions to support the woman in achieving orgasms.

To stimulate arousal for the woman who is wanting to fire up her orgasms, please listen to Dr Jan's audio recording titled, 'Sexual Fantasies For Women: Seductive Fantasies to Fire-up Your Sex-Life'.

So, if you're serious about wanting to spark up your sex life then you need to get a copy of "Achieve Fabulous Orgasms For Women" right now!

This is one of a series of audios on sexual topics presented by Dr Janet Hall called: 'Dr Janet Hall's Sensational Sex Series'.

Dr Janet Hall is a Clinical Psychologist, Hypnotherapist, Author, Speaker and Media Consultant.

Dr Jan authored eight books on family and relationships and recorded over 50 audio-recordings, many of them including hypnotic material. She founded Richmond Hill Psychology in Melbourne, Australia.
