Teddy should be happy. She survived an 11-year battle with Hodgkin’s lymphoma, finished her BA, and found the person of her dreams in a friend. From a distance, she has everything, except the one thing she can’t have.

Asher’s supported Teddy from the moment they met, but even he can’t ease her insecurity about her inability to conceive.

Friends That Break chronicles the emotional struggle over a three-day period of a couple’s road to love, loss, and life beyond a traditional route.

This story is approximately 18k, and best suited for 18+ audiences for its mature content.
