Henry Allington has returned from Paris to complete his military training in London, but his thoughts are far from the army. After years abroad, he’s fallen in love, but his family’s reaction is anything but favourable. Can Henry navigate his newfound feelings while managing the expectations of his family and society? Friends with The Lady is a tender and clean Regency romance that explores the challenges of love, family expectations, and the courage to follow one’s heart.

About The Lady Series:

Meet a different Lady in each novella â€” bold, brilliant, and ready to rewrite the rules of Regency courtship. From scandalous horse rides to stolen kisses at Almack’s, love is always just a heartbeat away.
