Jane is a naughty, dirty nurse who works for a plastic surgery clinic in Los Angeles.
One day she and her friend Roxy witness a tentacle monster mutant manhandling a lady at the beach, an event which inspires a massive group session where everyone joins in for some exhibition.
Later, Jane heads to work and tends to a paranormal patient.
Only her patient is no normal man.
He has something attached to his face, something longer than a nose, so Jane decides to go full facial like a cowgirl!
