Giggle while you learn grammar! Life in the modern era means communication, so how are you coming across? You may know that the English language is anything but pure, with contributions from a jumbled mix of languages, everything from Greek to Techno Geek. In this shrinking world, if your grammar isn't quite up to par, your customers and colleagues, friends and family may judge you a little harshly. With so much riding on the language you use, doesn't it make sense to wrap your mind around a few simple rules of grammar? In these changing times, it's now more important than ever to be understood and to command respect, and it doesn't have to be hard. In fact, it can be a pleasure. This program pokes irreverent fun at the different parts of speech and shows you exactly how to apply them in your daily conversations, written compositions, and presentations. Let Liv Montgomery, an accomplished author and speaker, teach you in 30 minutes the ins and outs of grammar in way your English teacher never imagined possible!
