Susie starts off with an autopsy report on a southern preacher who was found dead in an autoerotic mishap. The report confirms that he had a serious rubber fetish. Next, an interview with friendly, no-holds-barred neighborhood librarian Steve Harsin. From a small town in Minnesota, Steve deals with people of all types, from some who want to ban books like Lolita to others looking to find Madonna's sex book in the stacks. Susie and Steve discuss censorship, Marion the librarian, and more. Then, in the "Try This at Home" mailbag, Susie helps a young woman who asks for tips on how she can turn her boyfriend from sweet thing into a wild savage. Don't forget, you can send your confidential questions, feedback about the show, and requests for girly cards to susie@audible.com. (Episode 314, October 19, 2007)
