On this episode of the MeidasTouch Podcast: Donald Trump's plea to Justice Engoron for a stay of judgment is denied, signaling potential financial woes for the former president. Meanwhile, the GOP's star witness, Alexander Smirnov, is exposed for fabricating tales of corruption involving the Bidens and Ukraine, sparking a frantic doubling down by Fox News and the GOP amidst looming government shutdown deadlines. Amidst the chaos, the Biden administration forges ahead with student debt forgiveness, despite GOP obstruction, while Alabama's Supreme Court ruling on frozen embryos puts IVF in peril. Uncover the disturbing rhetoric from Trump ally Charlie Kirk, and dive into the controversies at CPAC, including new subpoenas in a lawsuit against leader Matt Schlapp. From Lara Trump's bold proclamations to surreal moments in Trump's Town Hall appearance, explore the highs and very low lows on the week.
