Ohio judge forces COVID vaccines on Defendants during sentencing. Former Federal Prosecutor relishes in Avenatti's sentence and slams defense lawyers, rude! And more! Join criminal defense lawyer Robert F. Gruler in a discussion on the latest legal, criminal and political news, including:

Former Pentagon official and Chief of Staff confirms that the National Guard was offered prior to the events on January 6th, 2021. Kash Patel, former Chief of Staff to the Acting U.S. Secretary of Defense under Trump, confirms that the extra security was denied due to political reasons. Who is Kash Patel and what is his background?

REMINDER: Washington D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser specifically rejected federal support on January 5th, 2021. Meanwhile, Feds agree to pay $6.1 million to create a special Capitol riot prosecutions database. Lincoln Project co-founder Steve Schmidt says 1/6 was much worse than 9/11 and all the resulting wars. FBI is ridiculed for concerns over a Capitol Hill Architecture Lego set. Franklin County, Ohio judge admits to mandating COVID-19 vaccines to defendants at the time of sentencing. Judge Richard Frye in the Court of Common Pleas in Ohio required vaccination for 3 of the last 20 defendants sentenced. WSYX reporter Lisa Rantala interviews a defendant who explains he did not want to take the vaccine but felt pressured into the agreement. Who is Judge Richard A. Frye in Courtroom 5F? Did Judge Judge Richard A. Frye violate Ohio Canons of Judicial Conduct? We review Rule 2.3 and 2.4. Former Federal Prosecutor Francey Hakes gloats over Michael Avenatti sentencing. Ms. Hakes calls all defense lawyers full of "BLUSTER" and "INCREDIBLE ARROGANCE." Review of other prosecutors we have discussed on this channel to decide which side has more arrogance or bluster.
