The gods of ancient Greece are among us. Hades, the king of the underworld, hatches a heinous plan to crown himself the supreme god - the God of Gods - and he will kill billions of humans, packing his kingdom with their souls.

Aurora Port is just an ordinary human, or so she thinks. Her life is flipped upside down when her estranged father, and owner of a large conglomerate disappears, feared kidnapped. A stunning adventure awaits. She has eight days to decipher her father's messages, find a mystical key, and stop Hades from destroying mankind. Aurora, with the help of Zeus, Hercules, and Iris must race against time to save the world and its inhabitants. Can she succeed? Is she ready for the secret her father kept from her?

You will not be able to stop listening to this thrilling, modern-day fantasy story intertwined with Greek mythology, suspense, and fast-paced action.
