John Newell, EdB - lead singer of Realtime, the 2005 international champion barbershop quartet - shares his approach to singing and performing. John is a vocal coach and singing teacher. This audiobook will answer your questions like "How do I sing better?" and "How do I sing easier?". John's approach will provide you with the voice help you need, set your vocalizing free, and help you achieve better vocal stamina and flexibility.

With a background in church choirs, classical chorales, a cappella ensembles, musical theater, and as a soloist, John provides a wealth of experience to singers. Clearly expressed and explained simply for singers of all levels of skill and experience.

Foreword by Graeme Morton - choral conducting fellow at the University of Queensland, choral conductor, organist, composer.
