There are three things you need to know about Lady Cassandra Fields:

- Despite being beloved, this diamond of the first water has yet to land a husband.
- Her bold personality and giving heart help fuel her charitable endeavors.
- She’s looking for adventure--something beyond ballgowns, drawing rooms, and her ladylike skill with needle and thread.

Thus far, Cassandra’s abysmal luck has kept her from reaching her goals. With no husband and no household, she’s beginning to wonder if she has a future at all. A surprising encounter with a cunning thief brings more to light than Cassandra is prepared to handle. But the lady has never backed down from a challenge, and it seems this mystery man might have finally met his match. When circumstances, once again, threaten Lady Cassandra’s dreams, she must decide if she’s willing to risk her careful plans for the thief who has stolen her heart.

Love Matched, a Penny Reid Universe Reimagining, is a full-length historical romance, can be listened to as a stand-alone and is book three in the London Ladies Embroidery series, Smartypants Romance Out of This World, Penny Reid Book Universe.
