Love cures all

When Emmett Chambers comes to Lilac Lake to replace Dr. Johnson, the town's GP, Dr. Johnson asks Crystal, owner of the Lilac Lake Café, to show him around. Emmett is the son of an insufferable ambitious politician who is the reason Emmett has chosen the life of a doctor in a small town, away from politics. Just as the relationship between Crystal and Emmett heats up, Emmett's mother finds out about it and is furious, deeming Crystal unsuitable for the family during her husband's presidential campaign.

Hoping to allow things to cool off, Crystal spends time at the Ogunquit Playhouse in Maine doing her usual summer gig as an extra in some of the plays put on there. But when she's called upon to help Emmett's mother with a problem there, everything changes for all of them.
