Lulu was born in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Even as a toddler, she knew what she would grow up to be. When asked what that would be, Lulu always leaped into the air and announced with a great big cheer: "I want to grow up to be a superhero, the first girl in the Republic of Tanzania to be a protector of the people. How cool is that going to be?" In English, the name Lulu means pearl. Because of that, Lulu's family and friends always called her the Pearl of Dar, the queen superhero-to-be.
