Synopsis

MANIFESTATION BOOK ONE with PAUL SELIG “The guides say the that books are energetic transmissions that work directly with the reader. And I believe that to be true.”
“This isn’t sort of feel-good new age-y stuff. I wish it was sometimes. I’m never going to be on a cruise ship with this stuff; it’s too challenging.” “Do something good for someone every day. And don’t tell anyone.” “Everything we experience we are in co-resonance with, because we are experiencing it. As you shift your consciousness higher, you are claiming a new world into being, and what you see changes as a result. “Fear and knowing do not coexist.” “ world class channeler Paul Selig

EPISODE SUMMARY: How would you like a direct connection to source? Today we talk with Paul Selig, considered one of the foremost spiritual channels working today. In his ten breakthrough works of channeled literature including “I am the Word” (2010) and his newest, “Resurrection” (2022), he has recorded an extraordinary program for personal and planetary evolution as humankind awakens to its own divine nature. Born in NYC, Paul received his master’s degree from Yale. He lives in Maui, Hawaii and offers channeled workshops internationally. Wow. Just wow. What a conversation. Listen in to hear what source wants to tell you! Topics We Discuss: [4:05] Paul differentiates inspiration with channeled information. [9:11] The books are equally valuable experiences: a reading vs. listening to an audio book. The guides say the that books are energetic transmissions that work directly with the reader. [13:00] Paul describes what the guides mean by the focus of this book: “resurrection” and “the upper room”. We are living in an octave; we know ourselves in this collective reality. The upper room is the next octave, Christconsciousness, where fear does not exist. The resurrected self abides in the upper room -- in the world but not of it. [19:15] One of Paul's first channeled messages: "Freedom will come when the throne relinquishes his king." The small self (ego) sits on the throne. [22:00] Dying and leaving the body doesn't necessarily result in union with source. Conversely, when manifested in human form, you can experience yourself in union with source. [27:45] The belief in separation "that we are separate from source - is being dismantled now, and we are participating in that dismantling. Reality is being re-seen and re-known in a collective way today. [31:44] Love is an expression of God. An expression of source. Paul's book "The Book of Love and Creation" (2012) is focused the topic of love. Other of Paul's books address love as well. [33:17] Paul's very personal, very demanding experience during channeling and producing his books. He has channeled eleven books in eleven years! (His eleventh is in work.) [38:09] Humans are on the brink - as a species - of radical change, say the guides. And that humanity has decided on a higher level to "make it". [41:10] Lack comes from a belief in separation; a belief that there is not going to be enough. [44:10] Given the state of our world, how you can avoid overwhelm. [46:45] Everything you see, in your personal world or in the collective world, you are party to, you are in vibrational accord with. As you shift your consciousness higher, you are claiming a new world into being, and what you see changes as a result. This is how you can lift the collective experience.
