A normal year is not in the freakin'™ cards!
Maeve's second year at the prestigious Spellcrest Academy for young magic-users starts with a mysterious discovery---a ancient crystal skull appears on her bed. When she touches it, she is transported to the lonely tower along with six elite Master Classmen she doesn't recognize. There, Maeve learns of a secret society of Spellcrest's top students, poised to shape the world after graduating. But Maeve is just a medial, so her presence in this clandestine group raises suspicions.
As Maeve is challenged to prove her worth, she begins to suspect there are deeper secrets surrounding her recruitment. Was she truly chosen for her magical talents, or does the society have a darker, more nefarious motivation for involving her? Maeve must unravel the truth before it's too late---for herself, her loyal friends, and perhaps the entire academy.
A whole new adventure begins with the thrilling fourth book of the Spellcrest Academy series.
