A MILF menage short story.

A new, steamy book by best-selling author Isabella Dane.

A hot, new story of a woman satisfied by two men.

Married and pregnant at 17, Gemma tried for 20 years to make her marriage work. But when her ex set their house on fire, she was done. Over the past year she changed everything, especially partners. But the revolving door on her bedroom had gotten old, and she wanted something that would last. She was happy enough with her current boyfriend, but something was missing. Gemma never would have guessed that something was her son's best friend.
