I'm so sick of watching the world spin by, of letting people think I'm plain and boring, too afraid to just be myself.

Then I see him—John.

He's strength, and fury, and unapologetic. He's everything I want. And everything I wish I was.

He won't want me, but that doesn't matter. The sight of him is all the inspiration I need to finally shatter this glass house I've built around myself.

Only he does want me. And when our worlds collide, details we can't see become tangled, twisting together, ensnaring us in an invisible trap.

When it all goes wrong, I don't know if I'll be able to break free of the chains binding us or if I'll suffocate in the process.
