The rating system is back...and it's deadlier than ever. Celebrity heiress Legacy Hawkingâ€™s future has been planned for her - a high-profile government position, endless fame, and all the loneliness that comes with it. But the spotlight is strangling her, and nothing has gone right since the lab accident that took her momâ€™s life. When she discovers the accident may have been murder, she shuns the weight of her familyâ€™s expectations and leaves to uncover the truth.

Kole has kept a dark family secret for years. When his mom falls ill, heâ€™s forced to become a spy at the lab in order to save her - even if it means cooperating with a dark plot to reinstate the original rating system. He just never expected an enemy to make him question everything heâ€™s ever believed.

Two teens from opposite worlds collide as they uncover haunting family secrets and deal with their own troubled pasts. Can Kole save his mom without destroying the country and himself in the process? And can Legacy unravel a deadly conspiracy before it costs her everyone she loves?

Experience the new heart-pounding futuristic and dystopian thriller by USA Today and Wall Street Journal best-selling author Rebecca Rode now.
