She was offered the chance of a lifetime... literally.
Pregnant Jackie Desjardins struck a deal with the man who didn't have the heart to kill her—he would let her live if she faked her death and never returned. But when the scales of power tip unexpectedly, that deal expires, putting Jackie and her young daughter in the crosshairs of evil.
Former Navy SEAL and HERO Force doctor Ian "Razorback" Rhodes was injured in the line of duty when an oxygen tank he was holding for a patient exploded in a battle zone. Now he must protect Jackie and earn her trust to untangle the web that surrounds her, bringing her back from the land of the dead to defeat the forces that threaten to end her life once and for all.
