University of Aurora wasn't my first choice to pursue my photography degree. Nor was some random apartment with three *bro*s my first choice for housing. Yet here I am, surrounded by mountains on campus and three hot, but annoying " and sometimes downright hateful - bro in Seth, Hunter, and Lucas at home. I'm trying to ignore it all: the mess, the wild parties, and the fact that they pass the same woman between them like some kind of trophy. Yet as each day goes by, my hot, annoying, alpha-hole RoomHates are somehow turning into something that I can't seem to resist.
