Quen was born cursed with two souls—one human, the other a changeling. Sensing her oddity, animals avoid her. A misfit among her people, Quen has failed to match with a herdclan. At nearly 20, she's at risk of becoming pasha—no one. Then, a dragon attacks Quen's village, leaving her life a charred ruin. Fueled by her quest for vengeance, Quen joins a band of rogues hunting the dragon. She finds kindred spirits and the possibility of love. But she'll lose her newfound family, too, if they discover her secret. As their hunt spans the realm, Quen's journey reveals a terrible truth: her dark secret has caught the attention of dangerous eyes. And now, she has become the hunted. Quen and her companions face a power-hungry ruler, a shadowy dragon cult, and an esteemed leader of magical pillars—all vying to control her growing power. But Quen's fiercest battle lies within as she struggles to maintain control of her own skin. Will Quen overcome her curse and unite her warring souls? Or will her phantom soul consume her—and everyone she loves—in this Season of the Dragon?
