Kelsey Connor has grown up in one of the wealthiest families in America. She lives a champagne lifestyle and has never wanted for anything. But that life came with stipulations: Marry a man she doesn't love and make her parents proud. One fateful day, she leaves her Manolos and fancy apartment behind to carve herself a place in the world and find out who she really is. Until handsome Riley Jackson comes into her life, a life she isn't sure she really wants to lead again. Now she's stuck in the same position she started in two years ago, but this time... the decision isn't hers to make. Contains mature themes.
