Imagine being the person that your mother hates most in the world, then imagine that hate multiplied by the deceit of your best friend; you will see that your life can only be described as one wild roller coaster of a ride. This is the reality for Sheneya "Shene" Rivers whose life has always been filled with drama and pain. At 14, her life goes from bad to worse when she gets pregnant and sold into marriage. For the next few years she struggles to survive her initiation into womanhood until she escapes. Thinking she has found a moment of peace, she begins to rebuild her life but lurking in the shadows is a force from her past that will stop at nothing to return to a life she had worked so hard to escape or leave her in a grave. Will Shene find the strength to survive for her future or will she succumb to horrors of her past?
