Domenic Alderman is a normal 17 year old student who likes to occasionally lift weights. Winter vacation is over, and it's a week until Domenic's 18th birthday. At school, nothing special happens, just a new girl named Luna joined his class and she...glows! Quickly, Domenic's normal world is flipped upside down as he starts to go through some very strange changes.  If being able to run faster than normal and being able to lift weights like they were nothing weren't strange enough, accidentally turning a potential girlfriend into a sword and battling strange shadow creatures called Tamas might put a kink Domenic's graduating plans.
