Scheduled to become head concubine for a sadistic master, Lucia longs to be taken from her life. Born a slave, she believes she will die without ever knowing passion or love. Resigned to a life of cruelty, she never dreamed to find herself sailing the stars and sandwiched between two alpha males, each willing to die to protect her and each willing to see to her every sexual desire.

Raider, a Robin Hood of the future and a legend among thieves and space pirates, has amassed a fortune for himself and his crew. Seeking something more daring, he poses as a guard for hire and takes a position within a nobleman's household with an elaborate plan to claim the man's riches for himself. He finds himself less concerned about money and more captivated by Lucia-a most alluring bounty. His lust for her is dangerous and could leave them both with a death sentence. He doesn't care. He wants her and he'll stop at nothing to have her, to possess her, even if it means stealing her instead of gold.

Warning: This audiobook contains MMF/MFM (oh, who are we kidding, just about everything and everyone joins in the fun) graphic language, ménage and more, kinky alien sex, extreme alpha males, and pretty much anything else you can think to toss in for sexy fun.
