From New York Times best-selling author K. Bromberg comes a second-chance, rockstar romance that will stick with you long after you've heard the last word....

Vince Jennings has had two loves in his life. Music and Bristol Matthews.

His guitar skills catapult him to stardom with the most popular rock band on earth.

But it takes walking away from Bristol—his first love—to make this happen.

Despite the groupies, the success, the fun, life under the bright glare of fame and fortune isn't enough. Deep, dark pain threatens to derail all he's worked for, until fate brings her back into his life.

Bristol Matthews has found and lost love earlier in life than most, but she is determined to keep moving forward and not look backwards. Even though she is reminded of him every day.

Now her long-held dream of becoming a lawyer is finally within her grasp. Until her boss assigns her a new client. The famous rock star Vince Jennings.

A man who can never know her truth.

A man who can see through her as if he still knows her. The man who still loves her.

Something is different when their paths cross this time. Both are holding tightly to secrets that threaten to tear them apart. Isn't that always how their story has gone? Will this time around be different, or no matter how true their love, is it just not meant to be?
