Synopsis

This week on the Mark Levin Show, we currently have a president and an attorney general who are clearly going after their political opponents, whether it is pro-life protesters or parents at school board hearings, and we have had the greatest widespread institution of censorship under the Biden Administration. Next, whatâ€™s going on in our cities are not natural disasters, but instead Democrat party manmade disasters. Two teenagers in Las Vegas stole a car and deliberately killed a retired California police chief riding a bicycle. We can thank the radical prosecutors who do not prosecute and judges who coddle criminals for this. If there is a government shutdown for the right reasons, we should be all for it, but we have 5 Republicans in Congress who want to do it for the wrong reasons rather than advance the ball of liberty. The role of the federal government is to protect us from foreign threats, and the greatest threat we face today is Communist China, but these 5 in Congress are endangering our country and pretending to be principled conservatives when they are not. Former Capitol police chief Steven Sund was blamed by Nancy Pelosi for not securing the Capitol building on January 6. But the National Guard canâ€™t deploy without Pelosiâ€™s go-ahead. President Trump offered her 10K National Guardsmen and she said no, so did the D.C. mayor. Later, we have a rouge DOJ with a rouge Attorney General. AG Merrick Garland at a hearing today refused to answer any questions. The GOP needs to have a Constitutional battle. Our southern border is wide open under the Biden administration, and now they are demanding that illegal aliens get photo I.D. cards once they enter America. Learn more about your ad choices.
