

The Exhibition

author: Grace Marshall

2026-07

Synopsis

author	Grace Marshall
readBy	Bethany Baier
inLanguage	english

What starts out as a simple PR stunt for New York City gallery owner, Stacie Emerson ends up a dangerous slog through the Oregon wilderness in the company of wildlife photographer Harris Walker. As their initial dislike for each other gives way to respect, then passion, then something deeper, they struggle to prevent an environmental disaster orchestrated by Terrance Jamison, the archenemy of her ex-fiancé, Ellison Thorne.

But just as Stacie is convinced she can make things right with Ellison and have the love she desires with Harris, Jamison uncovers her darkest secrets. She must risk everything to expose him. How can she be deserving of Ellison's respect and Harris's love if she can't stand up for what's right?

Grace Marshall lives in South England with her husband and the growing gang of hooligan birds who frequent their feeders. When Grace isn't busy writing something sexy and romantic, she's busy digging in her ever-expanding veg garden or walking across the British countryside. She finds inspiration outdoors in nature, and most of her best story ideas come to her while she's walking or gardening.

Grace is the author of the fast-paced, quirky Executive Decisions Trilogy published by Xcite Romance. The first and second novels in the trilogy are out now. Grace Marshall's alter-ego, K. D. Grace, writes critically acclaimed, best-selling erotic romance. Whether it's sexy romance or romantic sex, between The Graces, there's a story for you.

Reader's comments

comment 1:

â€"â€" ()