Is it truly better to have loved and lost? Bethany Cahill says nope. Eleven years ago, her fellow cheerleader Reid Thatcher held her heart in her hand...and crushed it like a bug. Since then, Bethany avoids risk, reward, and anything romantic on TV. Just, no. When a new patient walks into her office, sheâ€™s catapulted into the past and staring into Reidâ€™s eyes, who is still annoyingly stunning. Forgiveness doesnâ€™t come easy, and Bethany isnâ€™t about to let Reid in. Not after all she took.

Reid never understood why Bethany ran from her all those years ago, but no kiss since has ever been as satisfying as Bethanyâ€™s lips on hers. Orchestrating a run-in was the best idea sheâ€™s ever had, and Reid plans to get to the bottom of Bethanyâ€™s silence, a mystery she canâ€™t let drop. But she hadnâ€™t planned on the reckoning in store when she learns the truth.

When Bethany and Reid confront their past, they give new meaning to letting go, forgiveness, and a future worth fighting for.
