On the IEP OMG Show, we will explore what schools can do to support students with special needs and how parents can secure these supports. Weâ€™ll talk about the relevant history of special education and empower parents with strategies and insights into the school systems. These bite-sized shows will leave you informed, inspired, and ready to rock any SST, 504, or IEP. (PS this show is still for you if you donâ€™t yet know what those are!) Let me guide you through what is often confusing and overwhelming. Team up with me on IEP OMG!
