Love, family, and faith meet on the shores of Northern Michigan.
The Lake House Romance Series follows the Hayworth family as they face the future of their cherished generational retreat. After the loss of their beloved grandparents, the family must decide whether to hold on to the treasured lake house or let go of a place that has shaped their memories and traditions. Amidst breathtaking lakefront sunsets and a backdrop of mystery, the Hayworths rediscover that love truly bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Each book in this four-part Christian romance series introduces new characters whose journeys of love and faith weave together into a heartfelt tapestry of hope, legacy, and second chances. If you enjoy:
• Clean, faith-filled romance with a touch of mystery
• Generational family sagas centered on love and legacy
• Stories inspired by scripture and set in Northern Michigan then the Lake House Romance Series will keep you turning pages late into the night. The characters were lovable. Each storyline was original, and I was overwhelmed by how the stories tied together. Kudos!
This is the second time I've read this series! I couldn't stop myself it's that good. I only wish there were more books to continue the story. Truly enjoyed every word. Real storylines, real faith, and family love—this is one of the best series I've read in a long while.
Step inside the Lake House, where love and faith endure through every trial.
