What happens with the hard line between life and death blurs?

When Joseph of Arimathea took Yeshua's corpse off the cross and placed it in his own tomb, he risked everything he'd worked years for. But now, Yeshua's body is gone, and Joseph is running for his life.

Sister has never known anything but the lower city slums. She's a creature of the night, so base and inconsequential she's never even warranted a name. Welcome to first-century Jerusalem, where rumor and deceit rule the day. Step into the light and walk the ancient city side-by-side with the very first believers.

Feel what they felt. Risk what they risked. And find, with them, the unshakeable truth indelibly written across the heavens before time began - Yeshua changes everything. And everything is never what you expect.
