The Miracle of the Breaking entreats you to look beyond the meager pieces of yourself, a scattering of qualifications that are most certainly not enough for the task ahead, and look to the Miracle Worker who can transform even the smallest offering. Darlene Rhodes, pastor and international speaker, shares her intimate story of rising from an ocean of fear steeped with abuse and disappointment, and taking hold of a new hope and future with God. Her message transcends experience and setting and details, of times and names...it answers the questions so many wrestle with: "Can God really use me and my mess for anything good? Can things turn around in a life so devoid of perspective beyond the struggle, a life steeped in sorrow?" Her story answers this heart-cry with a resounding yes. Do you believe God would do the same for you?
