The last installment in the Royals of Rodina trilogy is filled with found family, laughter, romance, and plot twists to keep you on your toes!

When a murderer with a vendetta threatens the royal heirs of Rodina, they are sent to Zoris to stay with King Chazriel until the threat is neutralized. But when the king falls for the wrong woman, things get complicated.

Chaz discovers he is fated to Ameli, the Autumn Princess, but he knows their magical bond will not form until her coronation day. Deciding not to reveal their fates, he occupies his time with Lyna, a feisty maid from the Autumn Palace. But as his feelings for her grow and their time together runs out, he wonders, what if fate is wrong?

When Lyna accompanies the heirs on their journey to Zoris, she never imagined she would find herself in a no-strings-attached relationship with the charismatic Summer King. Once things between the two get serious, she knows leaving will destroy her beyond repair.

Ameli is an ambitious perfectionist, and despite not taking the throne for another 400 years, she spends every waking moment preparing for her reign. After overhearing a conversation naming her as Chaz's compeer, she knows she must fight for what is hers. But at what cost?

Author's note:

There is no cheating, and while I do not consider this a love triangle, some may.
