

The Sacred Place

author: Daniel Black

2026-06

Synopsis

author	Daniel Black
readBy	Kevin R. Free
inLanguage	english

Widely hailed for its historical resonance, Daniel Black's The Sacred Place is a powerful examination of racial tensions in 1955 Mississippi. Visiting from Chicago, 14-year-old Clement is unfamiliar with the social customs of the tiny town of Money. Striding into a general store, he offends the white store clerk by not placing his nickel in her hand. This seemingly innocuous act leads to a horrific murder and a conflict drawn along racial lines.

Reader's comments

comment 1:

â€"â€" ()