Sometimes the worst scars are the ones you can't see. World War III broke out 130 years ago when humans found out that magi and shifters were real. Humans have been imprisoning and enslaving the two species since. But now humans need their help protecting the world from the strange monsters they let cross the veil between realms. All three species have been at odds for more than a century, but can Madeo "a mage" and Cosmo "a lion shifter" put aside their differences to work together, and maybe even find comfort in each other's arms?
