The soul remembers everything - even if your brain still doesn't!

Like the first book, The Twin Flame Handbook, Part II interweaves the author's personal journey with research. The story picks up where her journey left off, and continues through later stages of the twin flame evolutionary process. Both books are written out of love to the author's own soul connection, as well as to other pairs out there looking for answers, and struggling to find them.

Inside the listener will find:

- How twin flames get themselves into separation, how to use that time as a gift, and how to get back out of it.
- What full heart center activation feels like and what it does.
- Discerning information, finding teachers, and filtering out "help" that does not work.
- What the unawakened and the awakened masculine look like.
- How the "chaser" becomes the "leader."
- The physics of why your evolution has to happen, and why you can't come back together without it.
- What "union with yourself" and love actually mean.
