Working as an investigator for the supernatural elite means living by three simple rules: don't ruffle feathers, keep the clients (vampires, shifters, witches, etc.) happy, and never give them a reason to want you dead. Simple. Unfortunately, Tessa Graves just can't seem to follow the rules. And that's why 300 bloodthirsty wolf shifters are hot on her trail.

Adding insult to injury, her newly-retired aunt and feisty grandmother have decided to become her new sidekicks... and roommates... and life coaches, whether Tessa likes it or not. Can these three strong-willed women survive each other long enough to avoid being torn to shreds? Dive into a hidden world of magic and mayhem to find out now!
